Admiral of The Fleet brand Chinese Catfish come from only the best US egg stock. The hatching, grow-out and processing of Admiral of the Fleet brand Chinese Catfish is controlled by one entity, and includes production of their own soybean-based feed used during grow-out.

No drugs or chemicals are used in the hatching, harvest and processing of Admiral of The Fleet brand Catfish. They are 100% raised in pens that float on the surface of natural deep-water lakes, so they never come into contact with the bottom and are entirely grown in clean, naturally-circulating freshwater. Also, 100% of AOF brand Catfish are processed only from live fish.

Finally, AOF brand Catfish is raised year-round, guaranteeing a regular supply of fresh stock. All of these controls ensure that Admiral of The Fleet brand Catfish is always white, firm and clean-tasting, and always available to serve to your most discriminating customers!
